(i) This LLB plan allows completion of the LLB degree programme in three and a half years, but it involves a heavier than normal load in two and a half of the three and a half years. There is no need to complete within the minimum timeframe, and students may wish to enrol for a more manageable load by extending the overall timeframe.

Requirements for LLB degree, Total: 480 points

Part I

120 points including:

- 45 points: LAW 121 or 121G, 131, 141
- and either
 - 75 points from courses prescribed for one other undergraduate degree programme at this University
 - or
 - 60 points from courses prescribed for one other undergraduate degree programme at this University
 - and
 - 15 points from courses listed in the General Education Schedules available for the non-Law degree or the conjoint degree

Notes:

(i) a student enrolling in LLB Part I will, in respect of the courses other than LAW 121G, 131 and 141, be required to enrol in the degree of the University of Auckland for which such courses are prescribed or available.

(ii) a student who is required to take 15 points from courses in General Education (other than LAW 121G) and who does not take these points in Part I, will need to fulfil this requirement concurrently with Parts II-IV. In this case the points will be additional to the requirements of Parts II-IV.

*15 point General Education course is to be taken in any of years 1-4, including Summer School.

Although LAW 458 is an elective course for the LLB, the Council for Legal Education (CLE) requires students intending to be admitted to the Bar to complete this course
