The University of Auckland

Mode of Study

Students studying at the University of Auckland are required to attend lectures, labs, tutorials and other related classes on campus. The University of Auckland does offer a small number of courses through flexible learning in the Faculty of Education and Social Work and in some of our postgraduate programmes.

Language of Instruction

All courses at the University of Auckland are taught in the English language, except for foreign and Maori language courses.

International Students

Immigration New Zealand requirements as of U3.7, Confirmation of Enrolment: The University of Auckland has assessed and is satisfied that the programme is appropriate for the student's expectations, and that the prospective student has the English language proficiency and academic capability to succeed in the programme offered.

International Student Fee estimates: The annual international student tuition fee for 2018 is approximately NZ$25,000 to $49,400. The living cost for a one year stay in New Zealand is approximately NZ$25,000 to NZ$30,000.

Definitions of Enrolment Status

Full Time study at The University of Auckland is currently defined as a student workload of not fewer than 100 points over two semesters in one year; not fewer than 50 points in one semester; or not fewer than 25 points in Summer School. Enrolment dates are only provided if course fees for each relevant term are paid in full.

Full Time study is defined by Immigration New Zealand as 3 courses or the equivalent of 45 points in one semester or quarter.
