

Fees Free and the chance to learn on the job!

Waipapa Taumata Rau | University of Auckland has been selected as a provider for a limited number of scholarships for students wishing to study the online Graduate Diploma in Teaching (Primary) as part of the Teacher Education in Schools Programme (an initiative supported by the Ministry of Education under the School Onsite Training Programme).

This is an opportunity to gain a top teaching qualification in just one year with your study fees covered, plus a $12,500 stipend to support your living costs during your study.

Participants spend three days a week embedded in a host primary school, where they experience day-to-day school life, while simultaneously completing their Graduate Diploma in Teaching (Primary) online. Places are available at schools in Auckland and Tai Tokerau.

The programme offers the flexibility of online learning with the benefits of being part of a school community, learning alongside experienced teachers, involvement in school activities, and building knowledge of effective teaching practices through observation and participation in the classroom.

You'll gain an internationally recognised degree from the only New Zealand University to rank in the top 50 in the world for Education as a subject* allowing you to teach in primary and intermediate schools.

Begin a fulfilling career where teachers are in high demand! Make your mark, apply for the programme and complete the programme conditions to be eligible for the scholarship.

To find out more about the programme:
auckland.ac.nz/becomeateacher

*QS World University Subject Rankings 2024